

Dark Horse

High yields for early winter in the desert A high quality and versatile product for the box or bulk grower/shipper

Dark Horse is a medium to large heading iceberg type that is designed for early Winter harvest in the Desert and early Spring harvest in Coastal regions. Through multiple trials and split blocks, it has shown superiority in yield versus competition. With its large frame, uniform, strong heading and thick texture, Dark Horse has rapidly become a superior iceberg variety that fulfills both growers and shippers demands.
